

University of Louisville Pediatric Ophthalmology, under the leadership of Dr. Aparna Ramasubramanian, MD, Director of Pediatric Ophthalmology, conducted an eye screening camp at the Home of the Innocents on July 29, 2017. This screening was part of a back to school event and approximately 480 kids of all ages were screened that day.

